

Gary has worked extensively in the west end theatre. He has played leading roles in musicals such as Starlight Express where he performed the lead role of 'Rusty'. He has also played lead roles in Five Guys Named Moe. He has also performed in the Lion King cast in its opening year in Germany, Hamburg.

Gary has also appeared with the English National Ballet Company for a gala performance in the presence of the late Princess Diana and performed at the Royal Variety Show alongside, Diana Ross and Robson and Jerome. Also appearing on the Shane Richie experience show. He has also been an assistant acting teacher at the Globe Theatre.