

Review from Paul Davis New Christian Music

Well conceived and executed by the enterprising singer-songwriter known as Jerzy. Poland-born and USA-based, I appreciated his very likeable town/country ditties that I imagine will appeal with a clear-cut country-charm. The diverse tales expressed in lyrical observation thaw the listener out. With a good vocal range, this CD's earthy songs are mostly love-ditties. Often contemplative and sentimental, he musically wears his heart on his sleeve. I enjoyed this healthy dose of tales written in plain-spoken lyrics that cut-to-the core of the matter against a background of competent musical teamsters. On the NCM Euro Chart, in recent years, the Band is gaining an easy-listening reputation, paying their dues to fame.

Easy-on-the –ear, the JERZY GROUP sing the new repertoire of songwriter, JERZY PRZYBYLSKI. Lyrics and music have always been a big part of Jerzy's life, from early childhood back in Poland where he attended all levels of music education from grammar school to university, and later his employment which he loved. He feels best playing piano or French horn with a pencil ready to write. He currently has publishing contracts and is a full member of ASCAP. A skilled writer indeed, here's Jerzy in country-territory, a la diversified moods and themes. The CD finds him in his best and fully matured colours. Wonderfully warm, his group's crystal-clear vocal talent could find a its well-deserved niche even in the ever-changing music environment! Paraded are new ballads dripping with sentiment.

This are review of Paul Davis of NCM from UK....

It is hard to pick up "sound like"some music critics say that is Country / Christian with some special European touch....because songs are in Christian Country I will go for Randy Travis, Ricky Skaggs and Kim Hill
